

The Creative Mentoring® Program Works!

Statewide Statistics from the 2008-2009 School Year*

*Statistics are based on End of Year Surveys submitted by students, teachers, mentors, and parents for grades 1 - 8.

Mentoring Makes a Difference One Child at a Time!

Mentoring Increases Self-Confidence in Students

92% of parents saw an improvement in their child because of mentoring

91% of mentors saw an improvement in their mentee

86% of teachers saw an improvement in their students

Mentoring Helps Children Build Relationships

94% of mentors felt that their mentee trusted them more by the end of the school year

75% of teachers felt that their mentored students were able to build better relationships with their peers

76% of teachers felt that their mentored students showed more respect for adults

84% of parents felt that their mentored children had a better relationship with their family

Students Like Being Mentored

91% of mentees want to have a mentor again next year

93% of mentees enjoy school more because they are mentored

Teachers Like Creative Mentoring

A majority of teachers saw an improvement in mentored students':

- Ability to work well with others (70%)
- Attitude towards learning (78%)
- Decision making skills (70%)

73% of teachers saw an improvement in mentored student's grades

98% of teachers recommend their student continue to be mentored by a Creative Mentor next year

Employees Like Being Creative Mentors

72% of mentors who were encouraged by their employer to mentor felt more productive when they returned to work after mentoring

Parents Like Creative Mentoring

96% of parents recommend their child continue in the Creative Mentoring program next year

Mentoring Works! We Just Need More Mentors.

93% of in-school coordinators of mentoring programs say that their greatest need is MORE MENTORS!